

Governor's MONTHLY LETTER

1 2024
JANUARY

Governor's Message

Rotary International District 2750 2023-24 Governor

Yoichiro Miyazaki

Vocational Service

Happy New Year!

I hope that you are all celebrating the New Year with a refreshing feeling.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude for your exceptional support during the past year.

Why is January Vocational Service Month? I believe it is a time for us as Rotary members and clubs at the beginning of the New Year to see if we are practising vocational service.

The Object of Rotary is a philosophical statement of Rotary's purpose and the responsibilities of Rotarians. The concept of vocational service is rooted in the second object, which calls on Rotarians to encourage and foster:

- High ethical standards in business and professions (The Four-Way Test)
- The recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations
- The dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society (The Four-Way Test)

How can you put these ideals into action?

- Talk about your profession in your club and take time to learn about fellow members' occupations.
- Use your skills and expertise to serve a community.
- Practice your profession with integrity and inspire others to behave ethically through your words and actions. (The Rotarian Code of Conduct)
- Help young people achieve their career goals.
- Guide and encourage others in their professional development.

Vocational service is the essence of Rotary and serves as the foundation from which we serve our communities around the world.

Rotary's Vocational Service involves using vocational knowledge and skills to address community needs and help those in need to make a living on their own.

Rotarians can advance high ethical standards by setting a positive example among colleagues and in their community. Here are a few specific ways Rotarians integrate ethics into their daily work life:

- Discuss and emphasize honesty, accountability, fairness, integrity, and respect when hiring, training, and supervising employees.
- Praise and encourage the exemplary behavior of colleagues.
- Demonstrate personal commitment to high ethical standards in relations with customers, vendors, and business associates, treating each business interaction with care and consideration.
- Promote socially and environmentally responsible practices in your businesses and organizations.

You may want to consider the following in your club;

- Discuss the importance of The Four-Way Test and the Rotarian Code of Conduct.
- Organize job counseling sessions, workshops, or professional development seminars with members to help younger generations develop fulfilling careers.

The January issue of the Governor's Monthly Letter has become a little philosophical. In closing, I would like to share with you two Paul Harris quotes.

When you know a man's business you know him.

A man may be a great success socially and still be a business miscreant, but a good businessman is not likely to be a social miscreant for any great length of time.

National Rotarian, March 1912

It must not be overlooked that being a Rotarian imposes upon a man an obligation to carry into his trade association the ideals and precepts which he holds as a Rotarian. He should endeavor to make them appreciated and get them accepted by all in his line of business.

My Road to Rotary

For the remaining six months of the year, let's act with a smile!
