CREATE LASTING IMPACT

A LASTING GIFT FOR THE FUTURE, WOVEN THROUGH ACTION AND COLLABORATION

Rotary International District 2750 2026-27 Governor Kiyemasa Muto

A Lasting Gift for the Future, Woven Through Action and Collaboration

Dear Fellow Rotarians,

It is my great honor to serve as Governor of Rotary International District 2750 for the 2026-27 Rotary year, beginning on July 1. I am delighted to begin this new Rotary year together with all of you as Governor of this historic and distinguished district. I sincerely look forward to working with you throughout the coming year.

This year, our RI President has chosen "Create Lasting Impact" as the presidential message. The service activities we undertake must not be merely temporary achievements. They must bring lasting, positive change to our communities and the world, ensuring their impact endures for generations to come.

I believe this message perfectly reflects the mission that Rotary is expected to fulfill today. The challenges facing our communities are becoming increasingly complex, and they can no longer be solved by a single organization or even a single Rotary club. More than ever, we are called upon to work together with a broader perspective and create sustainable, long-term results.

Inspired by the RI President's message, I have chosen the following District Theme for this Rotary year: "A Lasting Gift for the Future, Woven Through Action and Collaboration"

The future is not something that is given to us—it is something we create through our own actions. And to build a better future, collaboration among fellow Rotarians is indispensable.

Every service project we undertake today, every effort we make to develop leaders, strengthen membership, and protect the environment becomes a gift to future generations. To make that gift even more meaningful, I have chosen "Action" and "Collaboration" as this year's guiding principles.

One of my highest priorities this year is to strengthen collaboration across our clubs.

District 2750 is home to many unique clubs, each with its own traditions, accumulated knowledge, and outstanding record of service. Yet much of this valuable experience remains within individual clubs and is not fully shared throughout the district.

Successful membership initiatives, engaging club meetings, community partnerships, innovative public image strategies—there is an abundance of knowledge from which we can all learn. By sharing our experiences, learning from one another, and working together, we can further strengthen our entire district.

I am committed to creating an environment where clubs can connect more freely, exchange ideas, and develop service projects together. Collaboration is not merely about interaction; it is the driving force that creates new value.

A key enabler of this vision is Digital Transformation (DX).

DX is far more than simply digitizing our operations. It is about improving information sharing, reducing administrative burdens, and enabling our members to devote more time to service and fellowship.

At the district level, we will actively utilize digital tools to strengthen our support for clubs. By sharing the wisdom and experience of every club throughout the district, we can deepen collaboration and foster new opportunities for service and membership growth.

Another important priority this year is to cultivate a culture of genuine hospitality within our clubs.

Membership growth is essential to Rotary's future, but increasing numbers alone is not our ultimate goal. What truly matters is creating an environment where every new member feels welcomed, develops meaningful friendships, and discovers purpose and fulfillment through Rotary.

When new members become engaged, contribute actively, and inspire the next generation to experience the value of Rotary, we create the warm and welcoming club culture that forms the foundation of sustainable club growth.

I also place great importance on educating young people as the foundation of peace.

In addition to Rotary's long-standing commitment to eradicating polio, our Youth Exchange, Interact, and Rotaract programs provide invaluable opportunities to nurture the next generation of leaders. Investing in young people is one of the greatest gifts we can offer the future.

Education shapes individuals, individuals transform society, and together those transformations build a more peaceful world. I firmly believe in the power of this continuing cycle.

Another major focus of this Rotary year will be advancing environmental sustainability.

As one concrete initiative, I encourage clubs throughout District 2750 to establish and expand Food Pantry projects.

Food loss remains a significant social challenge. Every day, large quantities of perfectly usable food are discarded, while many families and children continue to struggle with food insecurity.

Food pantries address both challenges simultaneously. By providing food to those in need, they strengthen our communities while reducing environmental impact through the reduction of food waste. Preventing food waste also helps reduce CO<sub>2</sub> emissions associated with waste disposal and contributes to building a more sustainable society.

Moreover, food pantry initiatives offer tremendous opportunities for collaboration. Projects that may be difficult for a single club can achieve far greater impact when clubs work together in partnership with businesses, local governments, and community organizations.

I sincerely hope these initiatives will spread throughout District 2750 and become a defining example of how our district combines environmental stewardship with meaningful community service.

Throughout this Rotary year, I look forward to learning, sharing ideas, and taking action together with all of you as we continue to strengthen District 2750.

Let us harness the power of collaboration, foster welcoming and hospitable clubs, and connect today's efforts in peacebuilding, education, and environmental stewardship to a brighter future. I am confident that these collective efforts will truly Create Lasting Impact and become an invaluable gift for generations to come.

Thank you sincerely for your understanding, encouragement, and wholehearted support throughout the year.
